

BIOGRAPHY

With over 26 years of distinguished service as a U.S. Army Soldier and officer and a proud legal immigrant, Trevor Liverpool brings unmatched insights into strategic leadership, high-stakes operations, and the human dimension of service. Liverpool has mentored, trained, instructed future leaders in academic settings and led teams under some of the most demanding conditions.

Now, Trevor Liverpool speaks to organizations, universities, and leadership teams about building clarity in chaos, adapting to uncertainty, and cultivating resilient leadership cultures.

Signature Topics

Mission Clarity: Leading with Purpose in Uncertain Times

Lessons from operational leadership—how to make sound decisions and align teams in fast-changing conditions.

From Battlefield Preparation to Boardroom Performance: Strategic Leadership That Works

Military-tested frameworks for building accountability, cohesion, and execution in civilian organizations.

The Immigrant Officer: A Journey of Service, Sacrifice, and Success

A compelling story of personal grit, cultural integration, and service-driven growth.

Teaching to Lead: How Instructor Roles Shape Tomorrow's Leaders

Perspectives from years of military academic instruction—practical tools to mentor and empower.

Adapt and Overcome: Resilience Lessons from a Life of Service

Real-world resilience strategies forged through deployment, transition, and leadership adversity.

Speaking Formats

- Keynotes (30–60 minutes)
- Leadership workshops
- Fireside chats & panels
- Academic guest lectures

Audience Types

- Corporate leadership teams
- Universities & ROTC programs
- Veteran-focused organizations
- Nonprofits & public sector leaders